PERMISSION

The Hon'ble the Chief Justice has been pleased to permit you to use and occupy the seat described here-

13. Inspection of licence.—Every Typist shall, between the 1st and 31st day of July each year, produce the licence before the Registrar for inspection. A note of such production and inspection with the date will be entered on the licence. If the Typist fails to comply with this rule, his name shall be posted on the High Court Notice Board with an order passed by the Registrar, with the prior approval of the Hon'ble the Chief Justice, that the operation of his licence is suspended and an appropriate action under the rules may be initiated against him.

14. Termination of licence.—A Typist who :—

- (i) is found not capable of efficiently discharging the function of a typist; or
- (ii) habitually remains absent during the Court hours or is absent from the station for a period exceeding one week without sufficient cause and without the prior permission of the Registrar;

shall be liable to have his licence terminated by an order of the Registrar with prior approval of the Hon'ble the Chief Justice:

Provided that before taking any such action, the registrar shall give reasonable opportunity to show cause to the Typist,

15. Cancellation of licence for misconduct.—The licence of a Typist shall be liable to be cancelled if he is found guilty of misconduct;

Provided that before taking any action under this rule, the Registrar may hold such inquiry as he may deem fit and shall give a reasonable opportunity to show cause to the Typist.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this Rule 'Misconduct' shall include any one or more of the following acts of omission and commission:—

- (a) if he/she is found guilty of having suppressed any material fact having a bearing on the registration under these rules; or
- (b) if he/she is found indulging in touting; or
- (c) if he/she is found having received payment from a litigant in excess of the rates fixed or by a dis-representation; or
- (d) if he/she is found unfit to practise as such by reason of any fraudulent or improper conduct; or
- (e) if he/she is found to have tampered with any document/petition etc. presented or to be presented in the Registry/Court or the record of the Court whether judicial or administrative; or
- (f) if he/she is declared an insolvent; or
- (g) if he/she is convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude; or
- (h) if he/she is found guilty of indiscipline in his/her conduct with any officer/official of the Court; or
- (i) if he/she commits a breach of any of the conditions prescribed in these rules; or
- (j) if he/she is found guilty of the conduct otherwise unbecoming of a registered Typist.

16. Suspension.—The licence of a Typist against whom a proceeding for termination or cancellation is instituted or is under contemplation, may be suspended by the Registrar with the prior approval of the Hon'ble the Chief Justice.

17. Cessation of work.—A typist may, at any time before the expiry of the period of licence, resign by giving one month's advance notice to the Registrar of his such intention.

18. Surrender of licence.—Every Typist:—

- (i) who resigns; or
- (ii) who enters Government or private service; or
- (iii) whose licence has been terminated, cancelled or suspended under these rules; or
- (iv) whose licence on expiry has not been renewed; shall forthwith surrender his licence to the Registrar and a note of such surrender with reasons therefor shall be made in the Register. The Typist shall thereupon stand de-registered.

19. Vacation of seat.—On the termination of licence by afflux of time or otherwise, the licensee shall vacate the seat assigned to him forthwith and not later than 24 hours without any let or hindrance.

20. Transitory Provision.—No Typist who is already working in the High Court premises shall be permitted to have access to the High Court for the purpose of attending to the work unless he/she gets himself/herself registered in accordance with these rules within 30 days from the date on which these rules come into force.

21. Residuary powers.—Nothing in these rules shall be deemed to affect the powers of the Hon'ble the Chief Justice to make such order from time to time as he may deem fit in regard to all matters forming part of the subject matter of these rules and all matters incidental or ancillary thereto not specifically provided for herein or in regard to matters as have not been provided for or have not been sufficiently provided for herein.

By order, of the Hon'ble the Chief Justice,
